Forward

Within the next few years the enrollment of the University of Nevada will be tripled. This increase will bring new buildings, new faces, and perhaps different events.

However the real things won't change. The basic ideas and philosophies that have survived and been taught through the ages will certainly continue to survive and be taught.

It is on the premise, therefore, that we look back with fondness at the year 1958-1959; but look ahead with an equal amount of pride and faith to the future.

A Message from our Governor . . .

The welfare of the University of Nevada has always been of serious concern to me. First as a student, more recently as a regent, I have watched the university grow and develop with a sense of pride which I am sure is shared by all who know it.

We have seen many changes here during the past decade. We recall the startling increase in enrollment in the post-war decade which greatly strained the university, but which warned the people of Nevada that a crisis in education might be at hand. Unless a program of expansion and modernization were undertaken, unless we reappraised administrative and teaching methods, we realized that the orderly processes of learning could be seriously impeded.

Fortunately, such a forward-looking improvement plan was put into motion in time. Designs for the new campus in Las Vegas were drawn up, additions and improvements to the Reno plant were completed, and the faculty was enlarged to provide the closer guidance that our students expected and deserved. On the administrative level, modifications were made which gave us an intellectual climate beneficial to both students and teachers. Under the presidency of Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, we know that there is now full opportunity here for scholastic endeavor and that adequate recognition for achievement is being given. The university will continue to flourish because of these changes; it will continue to improve because there is heightened respect for its serious purpose, the attainment of learning and understanding.

To today's students, the responsibility for shaping tomorrow's world has been given. To them also has been given the opportunity for accomplishment through education. In accepting this opportunity, in facing it with resolute purpose, the students of the University of Nevada cannot fail to equip themselves for the work that lies ahead.

GRANT SAWYER,
Governor.

Our New President

His message to us . . .

The year which is now concluding has been one of transition, of growth and of challenge for the University. It is now clear, as shown by our enrollment increases this year which were almost double the prediction, that we are moving very rapidly into a critical period of heavily increased pressures for admission and many new demands upon our facilities and resources.

We—students, faculty and administration alike—should look upon this prospect not as a crisis, but as an opportunity of tremendous significance for the future of our state. Here the importance of the University's unique position as the state's only system of higher education becomes most apparent. If the State of Nevada is to have the full benefit of its potential future leadership, with all that this can mean in the development of its economy and its resources, then it becomes imperative that we provide opportunities for post-high school education, probably in an increasing variety of forms, for all of the qualified young men and women of the state.

By planning now, by seeking every means to improve the efficiency, the economy and the effectiveness of our total operation, and with the constructive cooperation of every member of the University community toward a better University, we can move ahead with confidence. The future of Nevada is bright and filled with promise. The University can and should have a large share in bringing that promise to reality.

Charles J. Armstrong,
President

Nevada football rebounded from near extinction to the most successful season in many years during 1958 as the Wolf Pack surprised nearly everyone with a won three lost three record. Early in the school year it appeared that a lack of enough players would force Nevada to cancel its entire schedule. Only an all-out effort by students, players, faculty, administration, and alumni prevented this possibility. Bolstered by this new found support, the Wolf Pack promptly discovered new player interest and responded with an upset victory over Pepperdine in the season opener. The interest by both players and fans was sustained all season and indicated that Nevada would be even stronger in football next year. Most of the players will return.

NEVADA 12 PEPPERDINE 7

Any doubts as to Nevada's ability to play football were dispelled in the opening game against Pepperdine. The Wolf Pack showed its determination by scoring first, then by staging a second half comeback to go in front to stay as Nevada won a 12-7 upset.

The passing of quarterback Bobby Peck helped make the difference. He connected for 65 yards to end Tom Whitaker for the first score and later for 28 yards to end Bob Riolo for the game clincher.

NEVADA 18 CHICO STATE 22

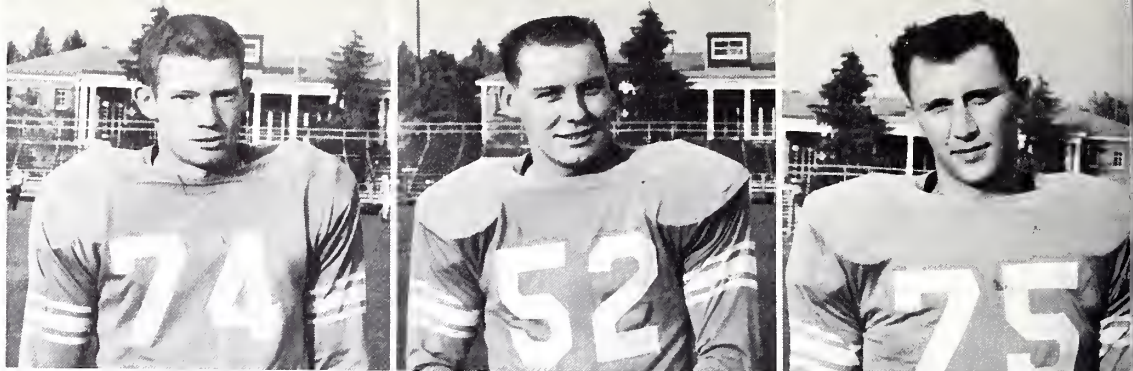

Nevada opened its Far Western Conference season against highly rated Chico State and threatened until the closing minutes to make it two wins in a row. The Wildcats rallied, however, to score a final touchdown and defeat the Wolf Pack 22-18. It was Nevada's ground game that held the spotlight against Chico. Halfback Bill Rankin scored twice and fullback Mike Lommori once.

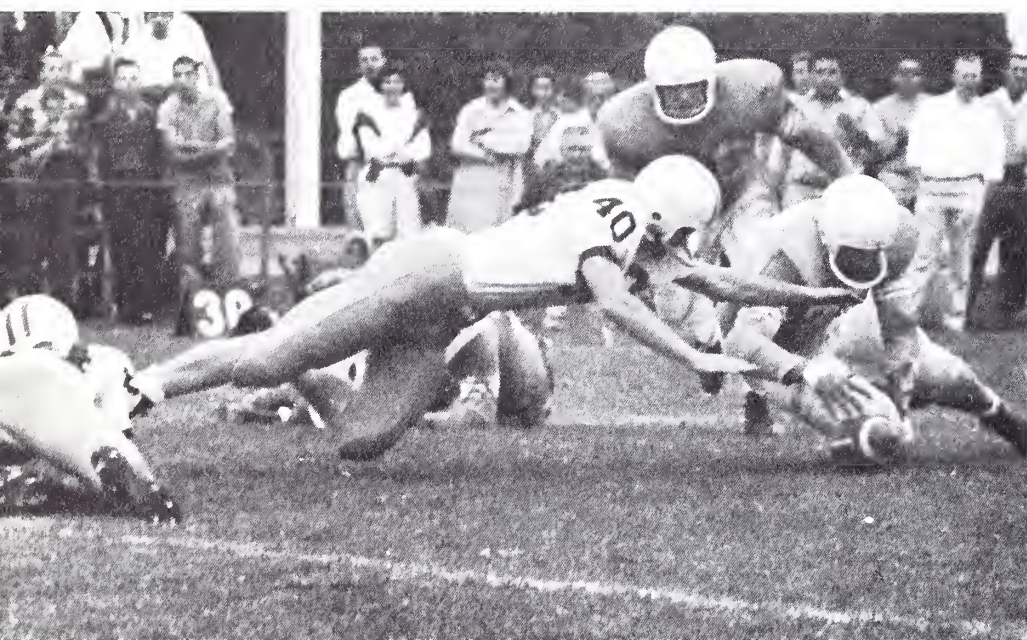

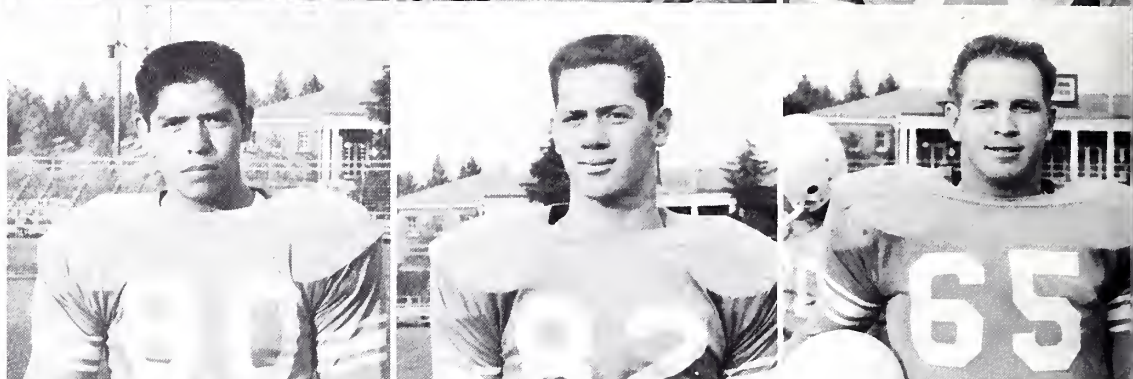

NEVADA 2 CAL AGGIES 14

The Wolf Pack couldn't get its offense moving against the Cal Aggies and the final gun found Nevada on the short end of a 14-2 score. It was Nevada's second straight conference loss. The Wolf Pack's only points came in the first quarter when an Aggie player was caught behind his own goal for a safety.

NEVADA 40 SACRAMENTO STATE 24

The best Homecoming football performance in a decade was the bill of fare for alumni and student fans as the aroused Wolf Pack toppled Sacramento State 40-24. The victory marked Nevada's first conference win of the season. The running of Jerry Tobin and the passing of quarterback Bobby Peck were the highlights. Tobin ran the opening kickoff back 99 yards for a touchdown to set the pace for Nevada. The next time the Wolf Pack gained possession, quarterback Bobby Peck passed to end Tom Whitaker for a play that covered 76 yards and another score. Peck also passed for three other touchdowns and fullback Mike Lomori ran over another score.

NEVADA 6 SAN FRANCISCO STATE 18

A second half comeback attempt was not enough as Nevada dropped its third conference game 18-6 to visiting San Francisco State. The Wolf Pack trailed 18-0 at halftime against the perennially strong Golden Gators. Nevada's lone touchdown was scored by halfback Jerry Tobin in the third quarter.

NEVADA 22 HUMBOLDT STATE 12

Nevada took an upset 22-12 victory against visiting Humboldt State and spoiled any hopes the Lumberjacks had for the conference championship. It was the final game in the Wolf Pack's abbreviated six-game schedule. Fullback Mike Lommori ended his college playing career in a blaze of glory by grounding out yardage when it counted and scoring one important touchdown. Other scores were by end Tom Whitaker on a pass from Bobby Peck and a quarterback sneak by Peck.

The Wolf Pack hoopsters compiled a 14 win and 8 lost season record this year. In Conference they came out with a fine 6 win 4 lost season. Stan Summers was high scoring playmaker as he racked up a total of 412 points for Nevada and was named to the Far Western Conference Team. Bob Ferrari shared co-captain honors with Summers and was a valuable asset to the team. It was another good year for Coach Jake Lawlor and the next year looks promising with the return of a number of fine lettermen.

Bob Challender, another freshmen—point maker, ran one of the best 220 yd. low hurdles since 1934. Harris, Lommori, Dow, and Burns added depth to the team. All year 'round,
Washoe County offers prime recreation for the sportsman and tourist.
There are excellent ski slopes in the county, and nearby is
Squaw Valley, site of the 1960
Winter Olympics.

RENO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

A lot of progress has been packed into the almost 100 years since the first hardy oldtimers laid down the rugged trailways that are giving place to today's smooth freeways. And the "battle-born" state of Nevada can be proud of the contributions it has made to the growth of our country and to the heritage of the West. Nevada is a great state for work or for fun, and there is no better city in which to play than Reno, and in Reno there is no finer place to stay than at Newt Crumley's new Holiday.

Under the direction of Chef Jean Lafontan, the Holiday offers the finest food in Reno in the Shore Room and Chef's Alcove, and there is continuous entertainment, featuring nationally known performers, in the Theater Lounge. You'll enjoy International Night every Tuesday, Prime Rib every Thursday, and the fabulous Seafoodarama every Friday.

SEWELL'S BLUE RIBBON BOYS
SERVING UP THAT WESTERN HOSPITALITY.

Shopping at Sewell's you'll find is a Western tradition. Ask your mother, ask your grandmother. Maybe they knew us when we first started in TUSCARORA, NEVADA. We've expanded, we've modernized . . . but we have never outgrown the kind of personal attention to your shopping needs that's made us a family friend since 1897.

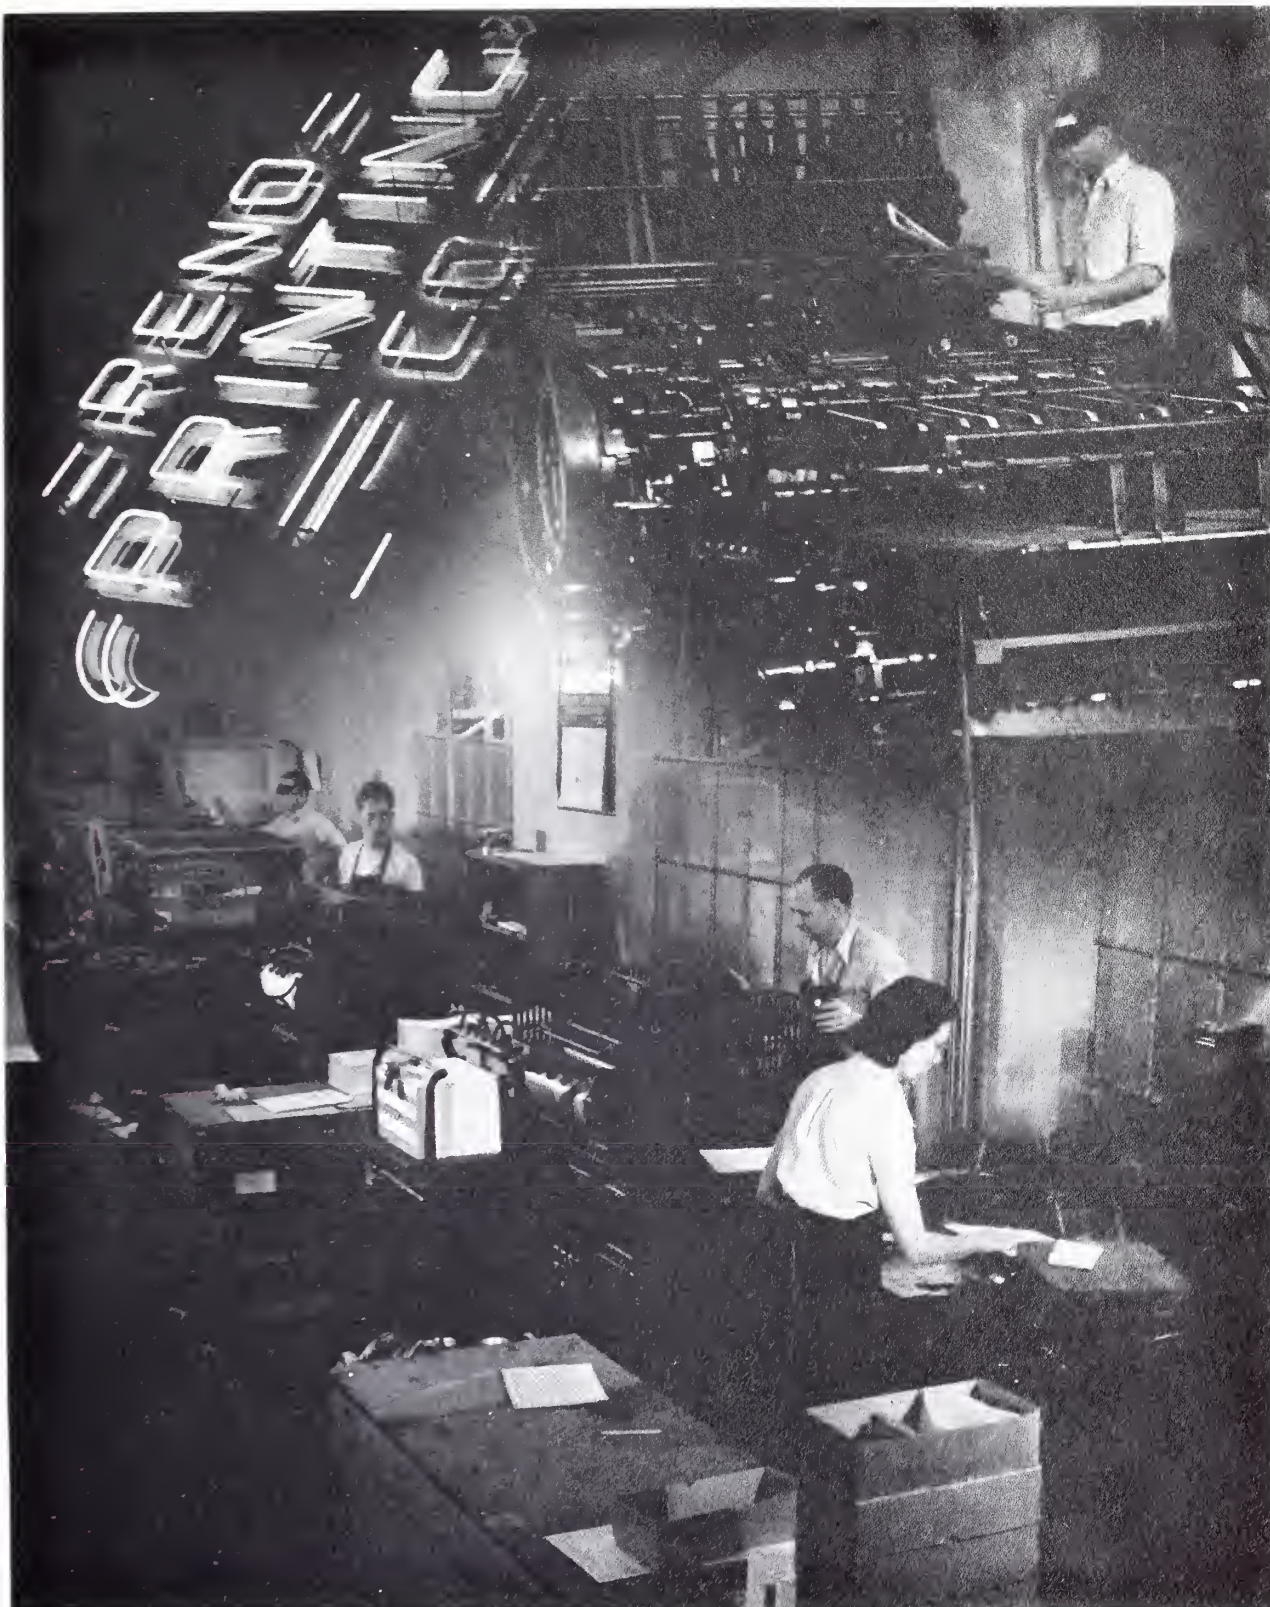

Most of us who serve you at Sewell's were born and raised right here in the West. That helps to know what you like to buy, how you like to eat. We know the kind of seasoning you want for those barbecues, the fine but not fancy foods that make for economical good eating every day of the week.

Sewell's have the greatest variety of merchandise available on the West Coast . . . from quail eggs from Japan to good 'ole Elko County beef . . . all a fingertip away on the shelves at Sewell's.

Remember, too, you'll find at Sewell's all the fixings for your famous Western cooking. But we're not content merely to sell them to you . . . no, ma'am! We insist upon "Serving them up" with a warm greeting, a welcoming smile that is Western hospitality at its best.

Sincerely
SEWELL'S

INDUSTRY

NEVADA

for your future

Nevada is growing faster per capita than any state in the nation because more and more people are discovering that Nevada presents countless opportunities to those interested in a sound secure future.

There is plenty of room for expansion and the state's vast storehouse of natural resources has barely been touched. Along with its abundance of natural wealth, Nevada has a sound reasonable tax structure which guarantees for residents the opportunity to grow without cumbersome tax burdens prevalent in many of the other states.

Nevada's liberal incorporation law is highly attractive and many of the nation's largest firms have filed necessary documents entitling them to do business in this state. Then too, Nevada has a Free-port law which exempts from taxation personal property in transit through the state while it is stored, assembled or processed. More and more manufacturers find free-port an opportunity to reduce their costs of distribution.

There is opportunity aplenty in all phases of Nevada's industrial growth—by 1965, the state's 1950 population of 160,000 is expected to have doubled. Someone will provide the new services, new trades, new skills and new businesses and industries needed by the fast growing economy—will it be you?

Nevada—the one sound state — offers you a good future.
